Cal Wilson

Comedian/Broadcaster/Actor

Cal Wilson came across the Tasman in 2003 and has gone on to become one of our most popular comedians, a perennial favourite on television shows such as Spicks and Specks, Good News Week, Thank God You're Here, and more recently Would I Lie To You? Have You Been Paying Attention? and Hughesy We Have a Problem. Her stand up shows are as engaging as they are hilarious, often bringing the audience's stories to life alongside her own.

Despite an aversion to the great outdoors, Cal bravely joined the cast of I'm A Celebrity,,,Get Me Out Of Here! in 2022 which saw her take on all the usual hair-raising challenges & biblical amount of bugs the series has to offer. Unprecedented times called for unprecedented adventures and at the very least some good material.

A gifted storyteller & writer, Cal was invited to join the writing team for the 2022 BAFTA Awards ceremony, as well as having previously written on the series Mean Mums and The Weekly with Charlie Pickering. In 2018, Cal was invited by Netflix to the Montreal Just for Laughs comedy festival in Montreal to record a Netflix Original Comedy Special which was released in early 2019.. In 2016, she landed one of her dream jobs as an ensemble cast member in Whose Line Is It Anyway? Australia alongside some of the country's brightest improvisers.

2019 saw Cal become a very serious children's author, penning two books called "George and the Great Bum Stampede," and "George and the Great Brain Swappery."

Cal continues her national touring and is returning for her 8th year as the Melbourne live show host of the worldwide smash-hit storytelling podcast The Moth.

You can see Cal perform her brand new show I've Gone To A Lot Of Trouble at the Melbourne Comedy Festival in 2022.
