Frank Woodley

Frank Woodley is built from funny – it's in his bones. Whether he's being a comedian, clown, actor or acrobat, he is constantly creating characters and worlds to engage audiences of all ages. He is Australia's most-loved professional show-off, and his special brand of nonsense-genius has seen him create numerous stageshows as well as his own ABC TV series, Woodley.

As one half of the highly lauded and much-loved comedy duo Lano & Woodley, Frank has toured hundreds of sold-out shows across Australia and overseas, co-created and starred in TV shows like The Adventures of Lano & Woodley; released an ARIA-award winning album and a novel.

Emerging from the Perrier Award-winning duo in 2006, Frank toured solo around Australia and to every major comedy festival.

He also starred against type as the Dog Catcher in family film Oddball, stretched his musical legs in his collaboration with Harvest Rain (playing Sir Robin in Monty Python's Spamalot at QPAC), was the Inspector in Lemony Snicket's The Composer Is Dead at the Sydney Opera House and Sir Andrew Aguecheek in the Melbourne Theatre Company's acclaimed production of Twelfth Night.

He also performed his children's show Noodlenut nationally and has written three hilarious books for kids about a girl detective called Kizmet. At the other end of the spectrum, he co-created the critically acclaimed, dark clown show, Inside with Simon Yates (acrobat), that he once described as "a dystopian hell, but in a funny way".

Frank is a regular guest on numerous Australian TV shows including The Weekly with Charlie Pickering and Spicks and Specks. He was an audience favourite on Thank God You're Here and a Team Captain on the Australian version of Would I Lie To You on Network 10. He also appeared in Amazon Prime's smash hit Last One Laughing Australia hosted by Rebel Wilson - and spoiler alert – he bloody won.

After reuniting with Colin Lane as part of the Melbourne Comedy Festival's 30th Birthday Bash at the Regent Theatre in 2016, for a surprise performance that brought the house down, Lano & Woodley returned to the stage, quickly winning the 2018 Melbourne Comedy Festival People's Choice Award and selling-out theatres around the country.

After two further blockbuster Lano & Woodley tours and a short time away from the spotlight (studying psychology), he's back and we 'Frankly' couldn't be more thrilled.
